

Support through Open Access Fund

Checklist for journal articles

Check whether your article meets the eligibility criteria of the OA Fund of the University and State Library Darmstadt.

Use the application form at www.ulb.tu-darmstadt.de/oa-fonds to submit your data.

I am the corresponding author and a member or associate of TU Darmstadt or have been at the time of submission/acceptance of the article.

The journal in which the article will be published has a quality assurance procedure and is listed in the Directory of Open Access Journals (DOAJ.org).

The article processing charge (APC) incl. VAT is 2,000 € (net 1,680 €) maximum. Partial funding is not possible. For foreign currencies the current exchange rate will be taken into account.

The article will be published under a Creative Commons licence. In its Open Access Policy, TU Darmstadt recommends the CC BY licence.

I use my ORCID iD for author identification.

I will use the official affiliation name "Technische Universität Darmstadt" or "Technical University of Darmstadt".*

The article should contain a funding acknowledgement to the publishing fund at the time of publication: "We acknowledge support by the Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft (DFG, German Research Foundation) and the Open Access Publishing Fund of Technical University of Darmstadt."

* Statement of institutional affiliation is regulated by the Publication Guidelines of TU Darmstadt.

Not eligible for funding:

Articles from externally funded projects in which funds are available for publications.

Articles in hybrid (subscription) journals and mirror journals (almost identically named OA offshoots of existing subscription journals), even if these are listed in the DOAJ.
