Support through Open Access Fund
Checklist for journal articles

Check whether your article meets the eligibility criteria of the OA Fund of the University and State Library Darmstadt.
Use the application form to submit your data.

I am the corresponding author and a member or associate of TU Darmstadt or have been at the time of submission of the article.

The journal in which the article will be published has a quality assurance procedure and is listed in the Directory of Open Access Journals (DOAJ.org).

The article will be published under a Creative Commons licence. In its Open Access Policy, TU Darmstadt recommends the CC BY licence.

I use my ORCID iD for author identification.

I will use the official affiliation name "Technische Universität Darmstadt" or "Technical University of Darmstadt".

In case external funding for publications was granted: These funds were already applied to other publications or would only cover a small fraction of the cost for this publication.

* Statement of institutional affiliation is regulated by the Publication Guidelines of TU Darmstadt.

Not eligible for funding:

Articles in hybrid journals (subscription journals where individual articles are published Open Access for a fee).

Articles in mirror journals (OA versions of existing subscription journals with almost the same name) even if they are listed in the DOAJ.
